

HENRY MITCHELL YOUNGBLOOD.

JULY 25, 1888.—Committed to the Committee of the Whole House and ordered to be printed.

Mr. BLISS, from the Committee on Pensions, submitted the following

R E P O R T :

[To accompany bill H. R. 10907.]

The Committee on Pensions, to whom was referred the bill (H. R. 10907) granting a pension to Henry Mitchell Youngblood, have considered the same, and report as follows:

The claimant, under the name of Mitchell (or Michael) Youngblood, as shown by the report of the War Department, served in Capt. Richard Sloan's company, First Regiment Drafted Georgia Militia, from June 4 to July 16, 1836, and was paid for one month and twenty-five days. The claimant and his wife are each seventy-one years of age, invalids, and in destitute condition. He should have a service pension as a survivor of the Indian wars.

Your committee recommend the passage of the bill amended by striking out the word "eight," in line 9, and inserting in lieu thereof the word "thirty."
